PROCEEDINGS

of the

AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR ENGINEERING EDUCATION

1965-66 • Contents • Volume 73

SEPTEMBER

1 The Strengths of ASEE
GEORGE D. LOBINGIER, Incoming President and Director, Educational Department, Westinghouse Electric Corporation

3 ASEE Awards

4 A Review of the 1965 Annual Meeting
RICHARD GREB, Press Relations, Illinois Institute of Technology

6 ASEE Honorary Memberships

7 The Foundation Is Strengthened
ELMER C. EASTON, Outgoing President and Dean, College of Engineering, Rutgers—The State University

10 The Lamme Award

11 The George Westinghouse Award

12 The Vincent Bendix Award

13 The Curtis W. McGraw Award

14 Tenth Annual Survey of Engineering Technician Enrollment and Graduation
PHILLIP PATRICK, Technical Institute, University of Dayton

16 Technical-Institute Graduates Win a Place at Sandia Corporation
VERNON O. HENNING, Technical Institute Recruiting Coordinator, Sandia Corporation

19 Annual Meeting Abstracts

OCTOBER

33 Challenges of Change: Curriculum, Teaching, and Jobs
JOHN R. DIXON, Associate Professor of Engineering, Swarthmore College

37 Why Do We Teach Electromagnetic Theory to Undergraduates?
S. A. SCHELKUNOFF, Professor Emeritus of Electrical Engineering, Columbia University

38 Straker Joins ASEE Staff

39 Partial Credit for Wrong Answers?
CHESLEY J. POSEY, Professor of Civil Engineering, University of Connecticut

40 The Human Factors Laboratory in Industrial Engineering
KENNETH R. LAUGHERY, Assistant Professor of Industrial Engineering and Psychology, State University of New York at Buffalo

44 So You Want to Write a Textbook?
IRVING L. KOSOW, Professor and Chairman of Electrical Technology Department, Staten Island Community College

47 Genesys—Florida's Answer to the Problem of Continuing Education for Engineers in Industry
JOHN A. NATTRESS, Associate Dean, College of Engineering, University of Florida

51 WSU Highway-Test Track

52 Faculty Salary Administration
T. A. WEYHER, Dean, School of Engineering, University of Miami

54 Public Relations and the Engineering Profession
RICHARD D. BLANCHARD, Director of Public Relations, Newark College of Engineering

58 Simulation of Nuclear-Engineering Experiments for High-School Students
T. G. WILLIAMSON, Associate Professor, W. R. JOHNSON, Lecturer, and J. L. MEEM, Professor, University of Virginia

61 An Interpretation of Steady-State Errors in Control Systems
J. C. DONOVAN, Senior Research Engineer, and L. B. KORTA, Research Engineer, Johnson Service Company

63 Preliminary Report on the Goals of Engineering Education
ERIC A. WALKER (The Pennsylvania State University), Chairman, Goals Committee, GEORGE A. HAWKINS (Purdue University), Director, Undergraduate Study, JOSEPH M. PETTIT (Stanford University), Director, Graduate Study

64 The Domino Analogy to Education
C. MICHAEL MOHR, Assistant Professor, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

NOVEMBER

65 Engineering Education and International Development
MORRIS ASIMOW, Professor of Engineering, University of California, and JOHN S. MCNOWN, Professor of Engineering, The University of Kansas

71 Computer Assistance in Teaching Engineering Mathematics
WARREN J. PELTON, System Development Corporation, and JOHN STAUDHAMMER, Arizona State University

73 Goals of Engineering Education from an Industrial Viewpoint
CHARLES T. MORROW, Manager, Office of Technical Relations, The Aerospace Corporation

76 An Open Letter to All ASEE Members
MARION L. SMITH, Chairman, Continuing Engineering Studies Division

77 Using CCTV in Teaching Speech: The Moment of Truth
HAROLD O. HASKITT, JR., Head, Speech Section, Department of Humanities, General Motors Institute

78 Awards

79 A Semitutorial Approach to Teaching
ROLAND A. MISCHKE, Associate Professor of Chemical Engineering, Virginia Polytechnic Institute

83 What Industry Needs in Engineers
ERNEST G. WALTERS, Director of Graduate Engineering Training, Western Electric Company

85 The Image of Engineering—A Problem in Communication
LOIS B. GREENFIELD, Assistant Professor of Engineering Administration, University of Wisconsin

88 An Energetics Course for All Senior Engineering Students
DONALD LEE WISE, Assistant Professor of Engineering, Pennsylvania Military College

MECHANICS DIVISION BULLETIN

90 Chairman's Message
JACK E. CERMAK

91 The Invariant Velocity Components of Keplerian Planetary Motion
JAMES L. CRONIN, JR., Professor, and LEONARD C. JONES, Professor, Institute of Technology, St. Louis University

94 On Euler's Equation of Motion Along Normals to Streamlines
F. B. GESSNER, Assistant Professor of Mechanical Engineering, Virginia Polytechnic Institute

97 A Laboratory for Teaching Mechanical Vibration
YIH-HSING PAO, Associate Professor, and CONRAD KOWAL, Teaching Assistant, College of Engineering, Cornell University

DECEMBER

101 Trends in European Engineering Education
HERMAN R. WEED, Professor of Electrical Engineering, The Ohio State University

104 Programs for Employing Faculty Members in Industry and Government, Summer 1966
C. E. WORK, Head, Department of Engineering Mechanics, Michigan Technological University

108 Engineering Degrees (1964-1965) and Preliminary Report on Enrollments (Fall 1965)
RALPH E. DUNHAM, Higher Education Studies Branch, U. S. Office of Education

109 ASEE Yearbook

JANUARY

149 The Master-Course Concept at The Johns Hopkins University
LAWRENCE P. GRAYSON, Assistant Professor of Electrical Engineering, The Johns Hopkins University

155 Senior Independent Projects
R. I. VACHON, Associate Professor of Mechanical Engineering, and G. E. TANGER, Professor of Mechanical Engineering, Auburn University

157 A Humanistic-Social Fantasy
F. G. HIGBEE, Emeritus Professor of Engineering Drawing, University of Iowa

161 Curriculum Revision
H. T. MILLER, Associate Professor of Engineering, California State College at Long Beach

164 WSU: Annual Meeting Host

166 Human Motivation and Continuing Engineering Studies
JOHN C. SOUTH, Consultant, Personnel Research, Westinghouse Electric Corporation

169 Engineering Enrollment—Synopsis of the Report of the ECAC Committee for Analysis of Engineering Enrollment
LEROY A. BROTHERS, Dean, College of Engineering and Science, Drexel Institute of Technology

171 Laboratory in Three-Dimensional Scalar and Vector Fields
J. R. EATON, Professor of Electrical Engineering, Purdue University

175 Engineering Education and Cultural Survival
CARL BARUS, Associate Professor of Electrical Engineering, Swarthmore College

177 A Classroom Experiment in Rigid-Body Dynamics
CHARLES A. BERG, Assistant Professor of Mechanical Engineering, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

179 An Experiment in Graduate Engineering Education
G. W. POWELL, Professor of Metallurgical Engineering, and M. G. FONTANA, Chairman of Metallurgical Engineering, The Ohio State University

180 The Unused Asset on Our Campuses
R. A. KINGERY, Director, Engineering Publications, University of Illinois

FEBRUARY

181 Engineering Degrees (1964-65) and Enrollments (Fall 1965) in Institutions with One or More ECPD-Accredited Curricula
RALPH E. DUNHAM, Higher Education Studies Branch, Division of Statistical Analysis, National Center for Educational Statistics, U. S. Office of Education

198 Systems Engineering: Engineering Come of Age and Its Academic Image
R. L. MOTARD, Associate Professor of Chemical Engineering, University of Houston

203 Speech in the Curriculum for Scientific and Technical Students
HERMAN A. ESTRIN, Professor of English, Newark College of Engineering

205 Unified Undergraduate Engineering Laboratory
V. KRISHNAN, Assistant Professor of Electrical Engineering, Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn, and J. BORDOGNA, Assistant Professor of Electrical Engineering, The University of Pennsylvania

207 Astronuclear Engineering Education: Report of a Short Topical Conference
ROBERT E. UHRIG, Chairman, Department of Nuclear Engineering, University of Florida

208 Dynamics in Materials Education
CEDRIC W. RICHARDS, Associate Professor of Civil Engineering, Stanford University

211 Educational Values of a Student Engineering Magazine
WARREN W. WOOD, Associate Professor of Engineering, San Jose State College

213 Educational Institutional Views of Undergraduate Goals of Engineering Education
WILLIAM K. LEBOLD, ROBERT PERRUCCI, JAMES SINGLETON, VINCENT SALVO, WARREN HOWLAND, and GEORGE A. HAWKINS, Purdue University

228 Grinter and Lobingier correspond on Goals Report

MARCH

229 Comments of the Boards of Analysts on the Preliminary Report on the Goals of Engineering Education

237 The Engineer in Industry and Government
WILLIAM K. LEBOLD, ROBERT PERRUCCI, and WARREN HOWLAND, Purdue University

274 Summer Institutes in Nuclear Defense Design
F. J. TAMANINI, P.E., Office of Civil Defense, U. S. Department of Defense

275 Team Design at Texas A&M
CHARLES A. RODENBERGER, Associate Professor, and A. E. CRONK, Professor and Head, Department of Aerospace Engineering, Texas A&M University

277 Design in a Graduate Nuclear-Engineering Curriculum
ALEXANDER SESONSKE, Professor of Nuclear Engineering, Purdue University

279 Centrum: An Approach to Teaching Engineering Design
BARTON L. JENKS, Associate Professor, and ROBERT J. HEINSOHN, Assistant Professor, Department of Mechanical Engineering, Pennsylvania State University

283 Towards the Best Engineering Curriculum
CHARLES P. BENNETT, Assistant Professor of Mechanical Engineering, University of Manitoba

285 The Influence of Nonuniform Flow on Drag Forces
J. F. HARP, Assistant Professor of Civil Engineering, University of Oklahoma

287 Motivation and Counseling of Engineering Students
J. D. RYDER, Dean of Engineering, Michigan State University

289 Teaching Engineering Design
ARTHUR D. HALL, Head, Television Engineering Department, Bell Telephone Laboratories, Inc.

APRIL

293 The Place of Computers in Engineering Education
DONALD L. KATZ, Professor of Chemical and Metallurgical Engineering, and BRICE CARNAHAN, Assistant Professor of Chemical Engineering, University of Michigan

297 Automatic Design as a Teaching Technique in Aircraft Structures
JAMES B. TIEDEMANN, Associate Professor of Mechanics and Aerospace Engineering, University of Kansas

302 An Educational Approach to Computers
RAYMOND J. PERRY, Captain, U. S. Coast Guard

305 The Programmed Learning Project: A Progress Report
NORMAN BALABANIAN, Visiting Professor of Electrical Engineering, University of California at Berkeley

309 Instructing Students in Computer Operation
WILLIAM H. MATTHEWS, Graduate Student in Electrical Engineering, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

311 Short Topical Conference on University Research Reactor Utilization
MARTIN A. WELT, Director, Nuclear Reactor Project, North Carolina State University at Raleigh

313 On the Use of the Computer in Engineering Education without a Programming Prerequisite
DAVID L. PARNAS, Assistant Professor of Computer Science and Electrical Engineering, Carnegie Institute of Technology

315 Engineering Degree Programs Accredited by ECPD as of October 1965
HAROLD A. FOECKE, Dean of Engineering, Gonzaga University

319 Computers in Engineering Education
Synopsis of the report from the ECAC-ECRC Information Systems Committee

322 Course Analysis and Partial Credit
BOYD C. RINGO, Professor of Civil Engineering, University of Cincinnati

323 Educating Engineering Students in the Use of Computers
ALAN B. MARCOVITZ, Assistant Professor of Electrical Engineering, University of Maryland

326 The Dartmouth Time-Sharing System
JOHN G. KEMENY, Chairman of Mathematics, and MYRON TRIBUS, Dean, Thayer School of Engineering, Dartmouth College

MAY

329 The Role of Humanities in Engineering Education
KONSTANTIN KOLENDA, Professor of Philosophy, Rice University

332 The Work-Study Program—Engineering Education in China Today
H. RUSSELL MCARTHUR, Associate Professor of Applied Mechanics, University of Alberta

336 Pullman Prepares for Annual Meeting

337 A New Type of Undergraduate Laboratory Instruction
B. GEBHART, Professor, J. F. BARROWS, Assistant Professor, and C. P. KNOWLES, Instructor, Department of Thermal Engineering, Cornell University

342 Origin of Engineering Ph.D.'s in 1965
WARREN E. WILSON, Chairman of Engineering, and JACK LANDAU, Student in Engineering, Harvey Mudd College

345 Teaching Engineering to Freshmen—A Favorable Experience at NYU
MICHAEL J. RABINS, Associate Professor of Mechanical Engineering, New York University

347 Model Construction as an Aid to Teaching Symmetry
V. D. FRÉCHETTE, Professor of Ceramic Science, State University of New York College of Ceramics at Alfred University

350 Message from the Program Chairman
P. F. MAEDER

350 Analytical Projects for Teaching Mechanics
GALE E. NEVILL, JR., Associate Professor, Engineering Science and Mechanics, University of Florida

353 Analytical Determination of Stresses on Three-Dimensional Oblique Plane using Mohr's Circle
JESSE C. SAEMANN, Professor of Engineering Mechanics, University of Wisconsin

355 The Gizmohr: A Mechanical Device for Determining Stress at a Point
GERALD C. WARD, Lecturer in Civil Engineering, The Technological Institute, Northwestern University

JUNE

361 Highlights of the Annual Meeting

362 Cybernation and Man in the Engineering Curriculum
NORMAN O. GUNDERSON, Dean of Engineering, San Jose State College

366 Engineering Teaching as a Career
HAROLD A. FOECKE, Dean of Engineering, Gonzaga University

375 NSF Institutional Program Support to Engineering
HOWARD E. PAGE, Division Director of Institutional Programs, National Science Foundation

378 MIT and Stanford Projects in System Engineering—An Educational Experience in Creative Design
WILLIAM BOLLAY, Visiting Professor of Engineering, Stanford University

380 Quickest Descent by Control
W. E. BLEICK, Professor of Mathematics, U. S. Naval Postgraduate School

383 Is Research Detrimental to Teaching—Teaching Unrewarding?
H. W. MAYNOR, Professor of Engineering, Auburn University

384 Residencies in Engineering Practice
J. R. BRAND, Section Manager, Engineering Research Division, E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Co., and C. A. DEPEW, Associate Professor of Mechanical Engineering, University of Washington

387 Graduate Training to Meet the Needs of Developing Countries
W. REED JOHNSON, Research Director, Department of Nuclear Engineering, University of Virginia

389 Organizational Views on Recruitment, Employment, and Education of Engineers in Industry and Government
ROBERT PERRUCCI, WILLIAM K. LEBOLD, and WARREN E. HOWLAND, Purdue University

408 A Flow Chart for Storing Student Transcripts on Magnetic Tape
MARVIN A. GRIFFIN, Professor of Industrial Engineering, University of Alabama

409 Where Have the Engineering Colleges Gone?
JAMES W. FULTON, Assistant Professor of Chemical Engineering, Oklahoma State University

410 Research Helps the Teaching Process
ERNEST M. SPOKES, Chairman of Mining and Petroleum Engineering, University of Missouri at Rolla

412 FOCUS: Newsletter of the Council of Technical Divisions and Committees

414 Index—Volume 56, 1965-1966
